According to an Athens dispatch, the Greek government is ready to satisfy all the demands of the allies which will not compromise her neutrality.

Bad weather has brought about forced inactivity along the south Serbian front held by the French and British. Winter is setting in unusually early in the Balkans.

The Serbian forces that were at Katchanik are now in retreat toward Albania, according to a Saloniki message.

Preceding their attack on Gorizia, the Italians have taken a mountain slope northwest of Oslovla and stormed strong trenches in the neighborhood, the war office at Rome reports.

Further successes have been gained by the Franco-British forces in the German colony of the Kamerun, in West Africa, heavy losses having been inflicted upon the Germans, it is officially announced in London.

Sinking of the French steamer Omara by a submarine in the Mediterranean, with the probable loss of 20 men of the crew, is announced in Paris.

WHEAT SEIZURE CAUSES PRICES TO TAKE BOUND

Advance of One and One-Half to Two and Three-Quarter Cents Over Saturday's Close Noted in Various Markets—Some Dealers Believe Big Advance Will Not Come at Present—Canadian Wheat Commandeered Said to Be for Italy.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, November 29. — Wheat jumped in price at all big grain markets today as a result of the Canadian government's seizure of 20,000,000 bushels.

Predictions, however, that a 5-cent advance would be added to values here right at the start, were not verified, the extreme opening change being 2½ cents.

At none of the more important markets did the advance over Saturday's prices exceed that figure, with one exception, and in most the increase was less.

At Minneapolis, December wheat opened two cents above Saturday's close, and May opened 1½ to 1½ cents above Saturday's prices.

At Kansas City, first sales for December wheat were at a rise of two-and-five-eighths cents, and May showed a rise of two cents over Saturday's ending.

At St. Louis, December wheat opened at an advance of one-and-one-eighth to one-and-three-eighths cents and May at an advance of one-and-three-quarters to two and one-quarter.

Grain exporters in New York were at sea today as to the probable outcome of the Canadian government's action in seizing 20,000,000 bushels, but all viewed the action seriously as many have sold Canadian wheat for shipment to Europe and have engaged ocean freight for it.

One shipper believed that eventually the British government would take over all Canadian and Indian wheat, which would be a bearish factor here.

It is understood that a large portion of the wheat commandeered will be shipped to Italy.

George E. Marcy, president of the Armour Grain Company, predicted that the Canadian government's action would release greater quantities of wheat for immediate delivery.

The market close here was firm at two and a quarter to two and three-eighths to two and a half cents advance, with December wheat $1.05½ and May $1.08½.

STARVATION STARES THE POLES IN FACE

Thousands Dying for Want of Food and Hundreds of Thousands Face Similar Death During Coming of Winter in Devastated Poland—Drastic Relief Measures Necessary.

By Associated Press.

Warsaw, Poland, November 29. — Hundreds of thousands of the civil population in the Warsaw district of Poland are suffering for want of food. A considerable percentage of this number are living in huts, caves and abandoned trenches.

The situation is more serious because of the immense number of persons thrown out of work by the almost complete paralysis of Polish industries. Some workers have emigrated to Germany.

Prominent Poles in all walks of life maintain that drastic relief measures are necessary if wholesale death from starvation are to be prevented.

Such flour as is now on hand is being distributed by the Germans under the bread-card system, but there is an acute shortage of dried vegetables, meat fats and condensed milk.

Prices all over Poland have risen to unprecedented heights. Thousands already have died of starvation and disease superinduced by hunger.

Mothers remaining alive are so under-nourished they cannot feed their children. In Warsaw and Lodz women now rise at three o'clock in the morning to get good places in the bread line.

SIX SPECIALS LEAVE OHIO

Columbus, November 29. — Six special trains, carrying about 500 corn boys and girls, winners of agricultural or domestic science contests in their respective communities, were on their way through Ohio today on the start of an excursion to Washington, New York and Philadelphia, which will end Saturday.

The trip was directed by the State Agricultural Department. Governor Willis expects to join the party Wednesday night or Thursday morning.

Sundays—1 to 3 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. m.

Spirits for home drinking cannot be purchased on Saturday or Sunday nor on other days except between noon and 2:30 p. m.

NEGRO WILL BE HANGED

By Associated Press.

Joliet, Ill., November 29. — Joseph Campbell, a negro convict, was today found guilty of murdering Mrs. Maizie Odette Allen, wife of former Warden Allen, in the warden's apartments of the state penitentiary here.

The verdict fixed the punishment at hanging and was returned after 44 hours of deliberation by the jury.

PROBING ALLEGED LYNCHING

By Associated Press.

Gibsonburg, O., November 29. — Wood county officers were busy today seeking evidence as to how John H. Willey, recently tried for the murder of Mrs. Eva Kimble, his wife's grandmother, came to his death by hanging near his home yesterday.

Some officials called the case suicide, while others admitted there was some basis for believing he had been lynched.

Sheriff Skibbe could find no trace of any mob. Willey was hanging from a noose made from a window sash cord.

B. F. James, Willey's counsel, said today that Willey never intimated any intent to commit suicide, and that he had received threatening letters following the verdict of "guilty of assault," returned by the jury in the Kimble murder case.

James claimed Willey's hands had been bound, but the sheriff denied this.

Columbus, November 29. — Governor Willis today ordered Adjutant General Hough to go to Gibsonburg to investigate reports of the lynching there.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Convicted Recently of Assault and Granted a New Trial, the Verdict Caused Great Dissatisfaction in Sandusky County, O., the Scene of the Killing—Victim Had Received Letters Threatening Vengeance.

Gibsonburg, O., Nov. 29.—Hanging to a tree, the lifeless body of John H.
Willey, recently tried for the murder of his grandmother, Mrs. Eva Kimble, last February, and granted a new trial, was found within a few rods of where the murder occurred.

Willey is believed to have been lynched by residents of Sandusky county, who were dissatisfied with the verdict in the case.

Willey was convicted of assault.

was granted a new trial and released on bond. He was also charged with assault and battery on his grandfather, who was found beaten and shot near the body of Mrs. Kimble, Feb. 12. This case was to be tried later.

Willey received several threatening letters after his release, one stating that a "lynching bee" would be "pulled off" soon, with Willey as the victim.

Willey's wrists were tied with a strap. There is no clue to the perpetrators. His features were badly con-torted and his clothes disarranged in a manner that indicated a struggle.

B. F. James of Bowling Green, who was attorney for Willey, stated that he was confident Willey did not kill himself. James had in his possession several letters which Willey received, one of which said: "I will take pleasure of informing you that a lynching bee will be pulled off one of these evenings, and without a doubt, the mob will make a clean sweep
while they are at it."

A neighbor of Willey's, Samuel H.
ser, said he heard several automobiles dash past his home about midnight, and also heard several shots.
He looked out, but the machines had disappeared.

BLUE SKY LAW CASE OUTLINED

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—John W. Warrington of this city, presiding judge of the United States circuit court of appeals, is sitting with District Judges
J. E. Sater of Columbus and Howard H. Hollister of Cincinnati, to hear on its merits the application filed by the Geiger-Jones company of Canton, dealers in investment securities, to prevent an anticipated revocation of its blue sky license.

Attorneys for the Geiger-Jones company attacked the constitutionality of the blue sky law on the ground that it violated the interstate commerce, due process, protection and liberty sections of the federal constitution.
Another important point emphasized at the opening of the trial was that the business of dealing in securities did not come under police regulation —that it was a private business and not related to public welfare.

Attorney General Turner strongly upheld not only the validity of the law, but also asserted that the Geiger-Jones company, an Ohio company, selling securities of Ohio companies,
was debarred from attacking the constitutionality of the measure, so far as alleged conflicts with the federal constitution were concerned. He declared the law contemplated a valid and legitimate licensing of an occupation for the protection of the public.
Mr. Turner also attacked some of the operations of the company. He alleged that one of its companies, in which the Geiger-Jones company had invested $1,000,000, lost that sum in five years.

as will Senator Atlee Pomerene.

land, Cincinnati, Marietta and New where they stop for two days. Here they will attend a reception by President Wilson and view the public

ALL CANADIAN WHEAT SEIZED

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 29.—Grain men say that the grain trade of the Dominion is paralyzed as the result of the commandeering by the government of all Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Northern wheat in the terminal elevators at Port William and Port Arthur and in eastern terminals. Some 20,000,000 bushels have been taken, and it is reported that the seizure will extend to other parts of Canada.

It is understood that the action was taken at the request of the British government. In a statement made public by the government it is said that the object of the extraordinary order is to put a stop to speculative prices, so that repeat orders from Great Britain may be obtained for Canadian grain. Prices are to be fixed by the government.

The government's order also brought a sudden stop to the loading of vessels in the harbors. So far the farmers are unaffected, but as there is uncertainty as to the length to which the Dominion government, at the instance of the mother government, may go, grain men make no attempt to conceal their anxiety.

A Decided Setback

The proposed national preparedness program received rather a rude jolt last week, according to the news dispatches from St. Louis.

Over in the Mound City Mayor Kiel had appointed a committee of one hundred to urge upon congress the adoption, in its entirety, of the program for national defense which, according to all the best advices, is to be submitted at the opening of congress. On Friday many members of that committee of one hundred resigned and many others threatened to resign.

Why?

Because the newspapers of St. Louis on Friday morning carried big advertisements offering for sale the capital stock of a ten million dollar corporation—the Maxim Munitions Company—at ten dollars per share.

The appointment of the boosters committee of one hundred St. Louis people was largely, if not entirely, due to a visit which Hudson Maxim had made to St. Louis during which he addressed the Business Men's Club and urged the support of the national preparedness program.

The urging of Mr. Maxim, the individual, for support of the program—purely a patriotic labor—was followed too closely by the disclosure of the financial interest in the program, held by the Maxim Munitions Corporation.

The St. Louis people were quick to realize that if the new corporation whose stock was offered for sale, was to profit financially by the adoption of the program, that other corporations, formed and to be formed, would likewise make immense profits and that the people would pay the bills—private profit would follow from an expenditure of the public revenues according to a plan, the adoption of which was urged on patriotic grounds.

From the unselfish to the selfish—from public good to private gain, from patriotism to greed—was too short a step and the underlying objection to the adoption of such a plan was revealed clearly to St. Louis' folks.

Former Solicitor General of the United States Lehman dryly observed "that's a pretty swift beginning."

What of Poland?

Naturally, next to Belgium, the most interest centers around the fate of Poland, the land which has suffered perhaps more than any other as a result of the European war.

Will a new Poland arise from the present dismembered and vassal country?

Will the work of Peter the Great be undone during the reign of Nicholas?

Germany has promised independence, enlightenment and religious and political freedom to the Poles but it is unlikely that Germany will consent to at once allow Poland to reclaim her original boundaries and begin government on her own account free from German supervision and control. There are three great nations the consent of which must be secured before Poland can arise an independent nation, from the remnants into which that land has been divided by the fortunes of the wars of the past.

Germany must consent to withdraw from that part of Russian Poland which she has taken from Russia by the sword and must also consent to relinquish that part of Poland which has long been a part of the German domain. Austria must consent to the abandonment of any claim to that portion of original Poland which has long been a part of the Austrian Empire, known as Galicia and Russia must release the strangle hold which she has so long retained on Poland proper as the result of the successes of the Russian armies under Peter.

There are many reasons why the independence of Poland might be agreed to as a means of perpetuating peace on the eastern boundary of the central powers. An independent nation there might push back the aggressive Russian bear so that the menace to the Teutonic nations would not be ever present and that consideration might easily prove sufficient for Germany and Austria to release from bondage the small portion they now hold. But there is the objection that Russia does not consider herself defeated and will, therefore, be loath to surrender, especially at the demand of her enemies, such a vast area of valuable land.

Poland's independence may result at the termination of the war and a new Poland free from the bondage of centuries would compensate the people of that unhappy and unfortunate land for many of the ills they have suffered in the wars of the past and in the present war, but that result is not yet by any logical reasoning probable in the near future.

A free Poland would mean much to the world. The people of Poland free to contribute to the arts and sciences would mean much to civilization.

Every human sentiment demands that Poland be free and given again into the keeping of the Polish people, but war mad European nations are not now controlled by the higher and better human impulses. If they were the war would end.

If Poland is free and the nation of Kosciusko once more arises it will be because the sword of the victor has forced that concession from a vanquished foe and as yet in Europe there is no victor and no vanquished.

AUTUMN.

Billows of golden leaves,
Forests of shadowy aisles,
Grain in a million sheaves,
Fruit in a million piles,
Hazel bloom quaintly fair,
Beauty o'er dale and hill;
All of her charms declare
Autumn—the Miracle.

Radiant, wonderful, pure;
Magic of infinite grace;
And here lies its miniature,
Dearest of hearts—thy face.
Forehead and lips and hair,
Fairy epitome;
All of thy smiles declare
Autumn—the Miracle.

Holding thy form to mine,
Under the azure skies,
Pledging my soul to thine,
I reverently kiss thine eyes;
For lo, I have found in them
The meaning from Him above
Autumn—His trailing hem;
Under the Autumn—Love.

African Marriage System.

You cannot fancy how deeply complicated the African marriage system is nor how many ramifications there may be to a woman palaver. One day Mr. Heminger was sitting in a hut talking with two members of his congregation, wives of one husband. He was talking to them about their sins, which were of an obvious character. The younger woman had been accused of stealing food. Then he turned to the elder, Wawa, she of the ten children, five of them dead and five of them cruel.

"Wawa," said he, "why cannot you live at peace with this wife of your husband? Why are you always quarrelling?" (They are notorious scap-pers.) "Well," said Wawa, "she was bought with one of my children, and I cannot forget it."—Jean Kenyon Mackenzie in Atlantic.

MOVING PICTURES.

Why They Appear to the Eye as One Continuous Photograph.

Motion pictures depend for their successful operation upon the physiological phenomenon known as "persistence of vision." If, for instance, a bright light is moved rapidly in front of the eye in a dark room it appears not as a spark, but as a line of light. A so called shooting star produces the same effect.

This result is purely physiological and is due to the fact that the retina of the eye may be considered practically as a sensitized plate of relatively slow speed, so that an image impressed upon it remains, before being effaced, for a period ranging from one-sixteenth to one-seventh of a second, according to the idiosyncrasies of the individual and the intensity of the light.

So it will be seen that if a number of pictures are successively presented to the eye they will appear as a single continuous photograph, provided the periods between them are short enough to prevent one of the photographs being effaced before its successor is presented to the eye.

If, for instance, a series of identical portraits were rapidly presented to the eye a single picture would apparently be viewed, or if we presented to the eye a series of photographs of moving objects, each one representing a minute successive phase of movement, the movements themselves would appear to be taking place. This is the principle of moving pictures.—New York Times.

SYRIAN SAND STORMS.

Experience of a Missionary in Wrestling With a Whirlwind.

One of the remarkable features of the climate and atmosphere of Syria is the prevalence of whirlwinds and waterspouts, both on land and over the sea. They are most prevalent in the deep trough of the Jordan valley and also in Coela-Syria, where the Lebanon and anti-Lebanon form another trough for the winds. They sometimes do an immense amount of damage and often at most unexpected seasons.

As a touring missionary in northern Syria I often met the whirlwinds. They appear in the shape of a column of dust perhaps two to five feet in diameter, rising straight in the air for several hundred feet, opening like a large funnel at the top. The lower end touches the ground and swings over the surface, picking up dust and pebbles in its path. The chaff and even grain on the thrashing floors are sucked up and disappear. Small fish are sometimes drawn up when the swaying column passes over a stream or lake.

Many years ago I made the experiment of riding through the swaying column of a rather innocent looking whirlwind. My horse was terrified, and I had difficulty in keeping my seat in the saddle. It is impossible to say exactly what did happen. It took me some time to find my hat and several days to get the sand and dust from my eyes and ears and clothing, and I have never made it again.—Christian Herald.

"Hang on Tight."

When a smoking car with thirty-five passengers jumped the track a railroad engineer in the car, off duty, yelled to the passengers to "hang on tight," and while the car turned over no one was hurt.

"Hang on tight" is good advice in most upsets. The man who hangs on tight to himself when his temper is upset will get through without hurting either himself or others. The man who "hangs on tight" to his earnings ends with a competence. The man who "hangs on tight" to his place when business upsets come generally holds down his job. The man who "hangs on tight" when discouragement or even disaster upsets others is a man to be hopeful about, because he will keep right side up whatever else turns over.—Philadelphia Press.

Apples rotting on the ground and city children crying for them—where's that conservator movement of T. R.'s strenuous days?

"Melancholy days" would be seasonable about now but for the fact that everybody got used to them in the weeks gone by.

BURGLARS RANSACK HOME OVERLOOK MONEY SOUGHT

Sometime Saturday night amateur burglars entered the residence of Mrs. Susan Dawson, an aged woman residing about one mile south of Plymouth, in Perry township, ransacked the house from top to bottom in an effort to obtain money which they evidently thought was secreted somewhere about the premises.

However the burglars overlooked the sum of $45 which Mrs. Dawson had placed in a bureau drawer and had forgotten to take with her when she left home Saturday afternoon, and place it in the bank as she intended.

The burglars entered the residence by cutting away the screen of the kitchen door and picking the lock. Once inside the house they took their time to going over the house, ransacking every place where they thought money or valuables would be concealed, but failing to find the money hidden away among some clothing.

To all appearances the burglars were amateurs, and had known of Mrs. Dawson's leaving the premises, and that she would be absent over night.

Sheriff Jones was notified Sunday night and has been working on the case, with the result that he is said to have picked up some clues which may result in the ultimate apprehension of the thieves.

In the meantime Mrs. Dawson is resolved to leave no more money about the premises, but to place it where amateurs cannot break in and carry it off.

BIG FEATURE IN CARNIVAL

The Y. M. C. A. is being transformed by the busy women of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., into a gay carnival scene and the hundreds of people who are planning to visit the carnival Wednesday and Thursday will find it a marvelously attractive place.

The boys' department in the new Stimson building will be turned over for the serving of good things to eat—its idea similar to that of the Japanese tea room of last year, only this year rumor has it that instead of Japanese effects there will be new and novel concoctions.

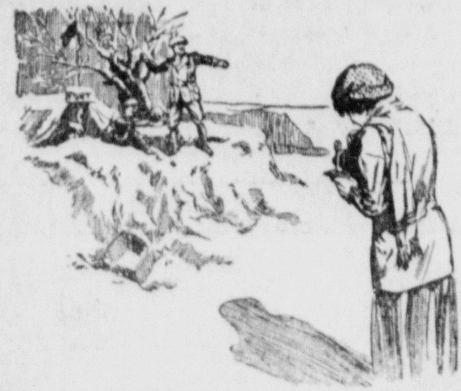

Mrs. Fred West and Miss Bess Cleaveland will employ their talents in decorations and management.

The other booths will all be on the first floor of the Y. M. C. A.—the Domestic Booth in charge of Mrs. Wm. Worthington; the Oriental Booth, where fortunes are told, in charge of Miss Haldee Van Winkle; Home Made Cooking, Miss Mary Robinson; Candy Booth, Misses Flora Allen and Forest Allen; Floral Booth, Mrs. Robert Dunn; Mrs. Carrie B. Willis, general supervisor.

The evening's entertainments, in charge of Y. M. C. A. Secretary Patton, will be real drawing cards.

On Wednesday night a five reel film, "Evangeline," will be put on, two shows given in the big gym. The photo play was given by Canadians in the country where the scenes of Longfellow's noted poem were laid.

Thursday night there will be two amateur shows, vaudeville and specialty acts. Among the specialties now booked are the High School Glee Club Quartet; Mr. A. S. Flem-

MOVIE CASE NOW IN COMMON PLEAS

The case of Clarence Myers, charged by the State with having operated a picture show in Chillicothe on Sunday, in which case the defendant was found guilty before Mayor Cahill, in Chillicothe recently, has been appealed to the common pleas court.

The suit, which is in the nature of a friendly action brought to test whether defendant has a right to run his picture show on Sundays, will be carried to the supreme court, if necessary, it is announced.

Mr. Myers is a brother to Mr. Myers who operates the Colonial Theater in this city.

RATS COSTLY TO STATE.

Pennsylvania Zoologist Makes Suggestion as to Way to Fight Pest.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Rats are costing the people of Pennsylvania over $5,000,000 a year, over half of which is lost by farmers and fruit growers, according to State Zoologist H. A. Surface, who has launched a campaign of education to get rid of the pests with the approval of Secretary of Agriculture Charles E. Patton. Dr. Surface says there are fifteen ways of getting rid of the rodents and reports the "city folks" as much interested as the farmers.

Among the ways he suggests are encouraging snakes, owls, hawks and weasels, where they do not do too much damage in other directions, train cats to be barn pets instead of house pets, use poisons, keep rat terriers and finally form rat killing clubs.

HUSKERS SCARCE PRICES ARE HIGH

Until recently corn huskers have been unusually scarce in Fayette county and the demand for them has been heavy, with prices correspondingly high. Five cents per bushel and the husker board himself has been paid by many farmers.

All of the farmers are anxious to have their corn husked before the severe winter weather comes.

AT THE EMPIRE

Bayard Veiller's "Within the Law" Proves to be a Rousing Melodrama.

A melodrama of timely interest, as it deals with the ins and outs of the metropolitan police departments was produced in New York and Chicago, and its author, Bayard Veiller, had many reasons to congratulate himself, for his play has many stirring scenes and nearly all the qualities of a big melodramatic success.

In Chicago last season, this play ran for over a hundred nights and the chief hit of the performance was scored by Miss Margaret Illington, who achieved a really brilliant success in the role of Mary Turner, a salesgirl in a department store, who is sent to jail for stealing goods, a crime of which she was innocent. On her release she determined to wreak vengeance on the department store proprietor who sent her to jail. She obtains money under false pretenses in various ways, but makes it the purpose of her life to always keep her crooked dealings within the law.

"Within the Law" will be seen at the Empire Theater, on Tuesday, November 30th. advt.

HOW TO GAIN FLESH

Remarkable Statement of a Woman Who was Nothing But Skin And Bones.

Laugh and grow fat is a homely saying, but Mrs. Elizabeth L. Morris of Hammond, La., tells of a more reliable method. She says:—

"I cannot say enough in praise of Vinol, for it saved my life. I was weak, nervous, run-down, could not sleep, was unfit for work and was nothing but skin and bones. Three doctors had all failed to help me. One day I saw Vinol advertised, took courage and bought a bottle, and it soon made me feel better. I continued its use and such a change! I have regained my strength, flesh and health, am perfectly well, and the doctor was surprised to see such a change in me in such a short time."

The reason Vinol proved such a wonderful strength creator in Mrs. Morris' case was because of the peptonate of iron, beef peptone and the extractives of fresh cod livers, without oil, combined in a pure native tonic wine, which makes Vinol a most wonderful tonic. Antiquity of Shorthand.
Shorthand is apt to be looked upon as an essentially modern art. The predecessors of Pitman—Byrom in the eighteenth century, Mason in the seventeenth—were dim and distant figures beyond which it seems useless to venture. Cicero dictated his orations to his freedman, T. Tullius Tiro, and was inconsolable when temporarily deprived of his services. He complained in a letter to a friend that, while "Tiro takes down whole phrases in a few signs, Spintharus (his provisional substitute) only writes in syllables." We need not, however, suppose that the "notae Tironianae" were actually invented by the freedman in question. As M. Guenin points out, the Romans created very few of the arts of peace, contenting themselves, as a rule, by copying from the Greeks. M. Guenin, however, indicates the banks of the Nile as the cradle of the art.

Mr. Ralph Bingham, the humorist, is in town. He arrived this afternoon as big as life and thrice as jolly. He brought a burst of sunshine with him. His coming was heralded in the following message to the Lyceum Course Committee.

"My entire troupe, consisting of one wife, one violin case and two grips will arrive in your city November 29th, at 3:34 p. m. You can tell which is the violin case and which is I for I'll wear a partly clean shave and be lugging Mrs. Bingham's suit case—I. e. the big one. We require one perfectly neutral and entirely in tune piano on top of the stage and to the left as one faces the multitude. Please see to it that there is a multitude. This is almost important. Kindly secure space for us at your very best hotel—if it is open. With kind regards I am

Yours for good clean fun,
"RALPH BINGHAM."
"P. S. Don't forget the multitude."

Mr. Bingham also encloses his favorite motto, which is: "I care not who makes my country's laws if I can make its laughs."

RULES OF SENATE MAY BE REVISED

Majority Members Meet and Take Up Question.

MAY PROVIDE FOR CLOTURE

Committee Headed by Senator Owens to Report to Caucus Recommendations of a Modified Form of Cloture On Debate—Democrats of Ways and Means Committee of the House Also In Session.

Washington, Nov. 29.—With Senator John Kern, conference chairman, presiding, Democrats of the senate met at noon today to hold their caucus. There will be daily sessions throughout the week. The question of revising the rules and providing for cloture or debate promises to enliven the proceedings. For several months a special committee, headed by Senator Owen of Oklahoma, has had revision of the rules under consideration. This committee will report to the caucus recommendations including a modified form of cloture on debate designed to prevent endless filibuster. It is believed that a majority of the Democrats will favor some form of cloture rule.

Organization work of the senate majority is not expected to precipitate any clashes. Although there have been rumors of changes in leadership, no definite contests for the honor places have thus far developed. Senator Kern will be re-elected as majority leader; Senator Clarke of Arkansas as president pro tempore, and Senator Lewis of Illinois as party whip, if he so desires.

No change in chairmanship of important senate committees is contemplated and some of the senators want to trade in order to make room for the new members. If any chairmanships are changed, however, the leaders say, they will be in minor committees. Heads of committees upon which will fall the major portion of the work of the coming session will not be disturbed.

By the retirement of Senators Root and Burton, two important Republican vacancies occur in the foreign relations committee, but there are no Democratic vacancies. Most of the important vacancies to be filled in other committees also occur on the Republican side.

Democratic members of the ways and means committee of the house also met at noon to undertake the task of parceling out committee recommendations. Not only are many Democratic vacancies left on most of the important committees, but the increase in Republican members will necessitate changing the party ratio on nearly all committees in order to take care of the enlarged minority. Few changes in the chairmanships of the principal committees are contemplated, however. Representative Kitchin of North Carolina already has been selected as chairman of the ways and means committee. For two days Mr. Kitchin's office has been overcrowded with Democratic members seeking advantageous committee appointments. Republican lists will be submitted by the minority conference, headed by Representative Mann of Illinois, after the Democratic recommendations have been approved by the party caucus next Saturday night.

cially at the time of preparation for embarking, have stated that they never heard of a single report of outrage having been committed."

Mr. Tumulty quotes from a letter written by the Very Rev. Antonio J. Paredes, Roman Catholic vicar general of the archdiocese of Mexico City, in which the writer says: "With reference to the violation of nuns, I am positive that no one of them within the archdiocese has suffered an attack upon her honor."

RUSSELL PREDICTS WAR WITH GERMANY

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—A call for Americans to arm themselves and prepare for a death grapple with Germany at the close of the present war in Europe was issued by Charles Edward Russell, editor and Socialist, in an address before the Socialist Literary society here. Germany, according to Mr. Russell, will win the gigantic contest in Europe and will establish the greatest empire the world has ever seen. Canada, he said, would be seized by the Germans and a chain of forts established along the Canadian American frontier. If Americans, he asserted, hoped to preserve the ideal of this republic from the ruthless German propaganda, they must prepare for war, and that immediately. He urged a bigger army and a bigger navy than that of any nation that might become an enemy of the United States.

GERMANS WILL ROB DENMARK

London, Nov. 29.—The Royal Prussian president of Schleswig-Holstein, Herr Von Moltke, issued an official statement to the effect that the prevalent rumors that the Danish portion of Schleswig will be restored to Denmark after the war are unfounded. Her Von Moltke declares that if reports are being spread by persons banking upon the victory of the allies, it is sufficient to point to the present position of the military operations.

TURKISH SUB. CAUSED PANIC

New York, Nov. 29.—A Turkish submarine stopped the British passenger ship Barulos in the Mediterranean on Oct. 23 and, after twenty-five persons had been drowned, assisted in rescuing many of the 250 passengers who had gone overboard in a panic, according to Eleanor Franklin Egan, an eyewitness, who arrived on the steamship New York

PROVEN CASE IS LACKING

CLAIM OF TUMULTY,
WHO WRITES LETTER

Nuns Not Mistreated By Car-
ranzistas In Mexico.

New York, Nov. 29.—Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, has written a letter to James J. McGuire, M. D., of Trenton, N. J., concerning the treatment of Catholic priests and nuns in Mexico at the hands of General Carranza, in which he says:

"You direct attention to the treatment of the clergy in Mexico, and especially to outrages alleged to have been committed upon nuns by the soldiers of the present government of Mexico. There is no official record of a single proven case of this dastardly crime in the files of the department of state. It was said that at Zacatecas a great many of the nuns had been outraged. Our special agent, who was sent there to make inquiries, after a thorough investigation covering two weeks, reported that he had not been able to confirm the report.

"It is true that the nuns had already left Zacatecas, but they had gone to Vera Cruz, where they remained until November, when they were sent by this government on a steamer to the United States. During all the time of their stay in Vera Cruz—and they remained there five months after the reported outrages—the officers of the American army, who were thrown more or less in contact with the priests and nuns, espe-

HOT PROBE ON MURDER

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 29.—Developments have mystified rather than enlightened Prosecutor W. E. Florance in his efforts to reassure himself that the murder of Samuel Weitzman, his wife, their son-in-law, David Kigner, and his wife, and John Gannas, a Hungarian farm hand, was the act of a crazed man, who afterward committed suicide.

In searching for lacking information regarding the domestic life of the family, which lived in seclusion in the farm house three miles from here, where the murders and suicide occurred, Mr. Florance has stumbled on information that a servant girl employed there left after a quarrel with the family. "I am anxious to find that girl," said Mr. Florance.

Another development was the arrest of Samuel Kigner of New York, a brother of the murdered David Kigner, on a charge to which he confessed of having taken a deed from the room next that in which the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman were found. The finding of jewelry worth $800 undisturbed and of some money has satisfied Mr. Florance that robbery was not the motive. County Physician Carroll, who performed an autopsy, thinks it was a quarrel over the war between the Hungarian and Russian farm hands.

Turks' Names For Greeks.

The Turks have definite names for the Greeks who inhabit Ottoman territory and for those who are their own masters. The latter are Yunan and their country Yunanistan—names derived from "Ionia"—while the Greeks and Turks are Rum. By origin this is simply "Romans" and is an inheritance from the Byzantine days, when the inhabitants of Constantinople, the New Rome, were called Romaloi, while the provincials were known as Helladikoi. "Rum" was the conquering Turks' name for the Byzantine empire. It survives in Roumelia, while the popular Greek language of the present day is still known as Romaic. But every Greek, in Greece or in Turkey, calls himself a L. lene.—London Chronicle.

Flexibility of English.

English is not only, as Richard Jefferies asserted, the most expressive and flexible of tongues, but also, in Swinburne's opinion, the most musical. He proclaimed the lines—

Music that gentler on the spirit lies
Than tired eyelids upon tired eyes to be unmatched for melody in any language. And few would venture to contradict such a master of music and tongues. But surely French ranks next on the roll of languages. For clearness of diction it is unrivaled, and, thanks to its abundance of vowels (close on one for every consonant), it flows rhythmically from the tongue.

Backward, Turn Backward, Oh, Heat In Your Flight

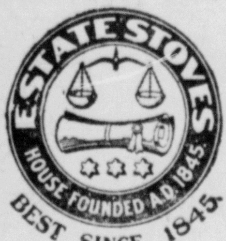

So sings the "little furnace" in the Estate Hot Storm, as it catches the upward rushing heat, blocks its escape, and hurls it back against the radiating surfaces of the stove.

This is Conservation—with a capital "C"! For the heat that is wasted in the ordinary stove—fully utilized in the Estate Hot Storm—has been proven by careful tests to be from 50 to 75% of all the heat generated from the coal.

THE Estate Hot Storm

is something more than a heating stove—it is a stove and a furnace in one. Even without the furnace feature, it would be far superior to any ordinary stove; with it, it is simply incomparable.

FORMER CONSUL WROTHY

GAFFNEY TO FIGHT CHARGES AGAINST HIM

Former Consul General at Munich Reaches New York.

New York, Nov. 29.—T. St. John Gaffney, who was asked to quit his post as United States consul general at Munich, Germany, because of complaints to the state department that his attitude on the war was partisan—that he was manifesting favoritism to Germany unbecoming a neutral representative—arrived here from Europe determined to vindicate himself and his conduct in office. Evidence which he brought back in the form of a huge stack of documents, letters and newspaper clippings, he declared, will disprove the charges, unknown to him officially, which impelled President Wilson to request his resignation.

The former consular official branded as "grossly unjust" the treatment he had received from the state department. He does not question, he said, the president's technical right to ask for his resignation, but he regrets having had no opportunity to defend himself.

Mr. Gaffney was wearing the Red Cross gold medal given him by King Ludwig of Bavaria when his ship came up the bay. The honor was bestowed upon him for founding the American hospital in Bavaria and for aid rendered to sick and wounded.

Germans to Cease Operations Against Serbia.

HOLD 100,000 PRISONERS

Remnant of the Serbian Army Reported Seeking Refuge in the Mountains of Albania—French Aviators Claim Victory in Engagement With German Aeroplanes—Roumania and Greece Causing Apprehension.

London, Nov. 29.—According to an official German statement issued at Berlin, the Austro-German-Bulgarian operations against Serbia, which were begun on Oct. 6, when the Austro-German armies crossed the Drina, the Save and the Danube, have been completed.

The German object, the establishment of communications with Bulgaria and Turkey, has been attained. The remnants of the Serbian army are reported to be fleeing into the mountains of Albania. Over 100,000 Serbian prisoners of war are claimed by the Germans, while the losses of the Serbians in dead and wounded are not estimated. Their losses in war material are described as "incalculable."

French and British forces continue to disembark at Salonica and the French line in the southeastern corner of Serbia is still holding its positions.

With the completion of their operations against Serbia, the Austro-German-Bulgarian forces, according to Rome dispatches are now preparing to turn their attention to Roumania and to the Russian army, which is reported to be massing on the Danube for an invasion of Bulgaria through that country.

Squadrons of German and allied aeroplanes fought extensively over Belgium, and a French aviator who started in pursuit of an enemy squadron brought down a German machine which fell into the sea off West End. German torpedo boats and German motor boats went to the rescue of the aviators and there followed a fight over the sea in which hydro-aeroplanes of the allies and French artillery took part.

BRAIN SURGERY CURES TWELVE

Exhibition Shows Wonders of Modern Operations.

PARALYTIC BOY ATHLETE.

Lad Goes Through Feats to Delight of New York Doctors—Some of the Victims Resorted to Use of Faculties When Cysts Were Removed From the Brain—Symptoms Puzzled.

New York.—A dozen children were exhibited recently as wonders of modern brain surgery at the Academy of Medicine at a joint session with the New York Neurological society.

The heads of most of them had been cut open, some on one side only, some on both sides, by Dr. William Sharpe and his assistants at Polyclinic hospital.

The children, who ranged in age from two to twelve years, had suffered from spasmodic paralysis, due to hemorrhage inside the skull. In many cases they had been seized with convulsions soon after birth. In a number of instances the paralysis was not much noticeable until eight months or so after birth.

In cutting into the heads of a large proportion of the cases the surgeon found cysts, which had to be removed. Sometimes the symptoms had been puzzling, and in every case where a hemorrhage was suspected as the cause of the symptoms the eye signs were investigated, and an examination was made of the spinal fluid to corroborate the diagnosis.

Little ones who before the knife explored their skulls were incapable of speech or even of locomotion or movements of the arms were able to talk and laugh and run backward and forward and hold their arms up above their heads like normal children.

One of the children, a boy, who before the operation couldn't walk or talk intelligibly, now goes seven blocks to school twice a day.

One little child that formerly was always huddled up, with its head bent down almost to its feet, trotted proudly before the surgeons, some of whom stood on chairs in order to get a better view.

In none of the cases shown at the meeting had there been any convulsions or backward symptoms since the use of the knife. Out of over 170 operations, according to the Polytechnic professor, there were only twelve deaths, and there were special reasons to account for them, including extreme emaciation in a number of instances when the skull was cut open.

One of the children was a boy of twelve, who, from being a helpless paralytic, had been taught by Dr. Hess M. Mensendieck to use one muscle after another until he has finally got almost as much control over himself as a professional athlete. The process of teaching him went on daily for more than six months.

The boy was stripped, and then on a mat he went through practically all the contortions of a wrestler, bending his body backward, forward, sideways, twisting his trunk, raising his arms, flexing his legs and rising from the mat by the use only of his leg muscles.

Dr. Alfred S. Taylor showed two young men who had been restored to health by opening their backs and removing spinal cord tumors.

Dr. C. Burns Craig, who served with the American ambulance service in Paris, told of the injuries to the peripheral nerves produced by modern warfare.

Few soldiers survive bayonet wounds, added Dr. Craig. They die either from shock or loss of blood.

Looks like everything in the work comes right if we just wait long enough.—Mrs. Wiggs.

PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.

The Aryan or White Race and Its Numerous Divisions.

The division of the earth's population according to race is as follows: Indo-Germanic or Aryan race (white), occupying Europe, America, Persia, India and Australia, about 775,000,000; Mongolian or Turanian (yellow and brown), living in Asia, about 682,000,000; Semitic (white), living in Asia, Arabia, etc., about 65,000,000; negro and Bantu (black), found in Africa, about 150,000,000; Malay and Polynesian (brown), inhabiting Australasia, about 35,000,000; American (Indian red), found in North and South America, number, including halfbreeds, about 25,000,000.

The Slavs are one of the chief divisions of the Aryan race. They are divided, as a race, into two leading families, the eastern and western Slavs. The eastern Slavs comprise the Russians (Great Russians, Little Russians and White Russians); Bulgarians, Serbo-Croats, including the Servians and Montenegrins, and Slovenes in Carinthia, Carniola and part of Syria. The western Slav family is divided into the Poles, in Russia, Austria and Prussia, and the Kassubers; the Czechs, or Bohemians, and the Moravians, with the Slovaks in Hungary, and the Lusatian Wends or Sorbs in Saxony and Prussia. The theory is that their original home was in Volhynia and White Russia.

VICTIMS OF NIAGARA.

Water Birds Go to Sleep and Are Swept Over the Falls.

Swimming too near the brink of the falls, hundreds of water birds, even swans, ducks and geese, go over Niagara falls to their death each year in the migratory season. So many birds pay the penalty for their daring each year that bird lovers on both the American and Canadian sides of the falls are considering steps to lessen the annual toll of the feathered life.

Since a majority of the victims are claimed in the night, the theory is advanced that the birds go to sleep while swimming and don't wake up until the rapids have carried them over the danger line. Usually they are killed outright in the fall. Sometimes they are only stunned and are picked out of the river below the falls and sold for food.

In 1912, so Ernest Harold Baynes, the naturalist, relates, 140 whistling swans went over Horseshoe falls. Boys and men fished the birds out, knocked them on the head and sold them.

"James Savage of Buffalo," Mr. Baynes says, "with some friends once saved a flock of swans by chasing them in a power boat and making them fly away just before nightfall. It was a daring thing for these men to do, for if by any chance the engine had become disabled nothing could have prevented their going over the falls."—Philadelphia North American.

HAS "THE RARE SENSE."

St. Paul Dog Anticipates the Wishes of Its Master.

St. Paul.—A dog that anticipates the wishes of its master is boasted of by A. M. Paulson, 1016 Marshall avenue.

The latest achievement of the animal was brought about when Mrs. Paulson was recovering the pantry shelves with newspapers.

The dog watched while papers were cut and fitted to the shelves. Suddenly it made a dash out of the kitchen door and over the fence. In about five minutes it returned with a newspaper in its mouth.

THINGS DOING AT THE MOVIES

COLONIAL.

One of the best of several features at the Colonial this week will be the re-appearance Wednesday of the much favored Robert Warwick in a late World Film release, "The Stolen Voice," a particularly unique and interesting play of five chapters.

Clare Kimball Young, for several seasons leading lady opposite Maurice Costello in first line Vitagraph productions, also is now appearing with the World Film Corporation and comes to the Colonial Friday in a five-reeler, entitled "Hearts in Exile."

"The Flame of Passion," a picture with plenty of action in its five reels will be shown Tuesday with Tom Terris in the lead.

"Protect Us," is the title of another five-reel feature Thursday, the leads of which have not been announced.

PALACE.

"The Juggernaut," a crowning achievement of picture production conceded to be one of the most remarkable plays ever attempted on screen, comes to the Palace Thursday, the third of the V-L-S-E features.

"The Juggernaut" is a daring drama of love, honor and railroad manipulation. Its thrilling climax is heightened by the actual wrecking of a train which plunges from a high trestle into a river below. The play is put on by the Vitagraph people with Earl Williams and Anita Stewart in the stellar roles.

Monday—"The Girl who Didn't Forget," Biograph, with Helen Bray, Jack Mulhall and Alan Hale.

Tuesday—Pretty Dorothy Kelly, William Dunn, Jay Dwiggling (Bunny's successor) and Don Hall in "The Kidnaped Stock Broker," Vitagraph.

Wednesday—"Under the Fiddlers' Elm," with Edgar Jones and Justina Huff.

Saturday—"A species of Mexican Man," 3-act Lubin, with Romaine Fielding, Audell Higgins and Vinnie Burns.

WONDERLAND.

Program not announced.

The prime minister sent for the wisest man in the land.

"I've got a lot of stuff about our country that I'd like to have known throughout the world, but it's pretty dry, and I'm afraid other peoples won't read it. What shall I do?"

"Put it in a book," said the sage, "and make the title 'Secret Diplomatic Memoirs.' They'll eat it up, statistics and all."—Boston Transcript.

He Liked It.

A man who lives alongside of a graveyard was asked if it was not an unpleasant location.

"No," said he; "I never resided in all my life with a set of neighbors that minded their own business so steadily as they do."—Pittsburgh Press.
